SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Early Monday morning an observation of a suspicious vehicle led to the arrest of two men armed with an assault rifle and a handgun. Deputies Ken White and Dave Lopes spotted a vehicle cruising a parking lot near the Burger King restaurant. Due to the late hour and the proximity of many businesses in the area, they decided to check out the vehicle and its two occupants. As they approached the vehicle, they were able to see an assault rifle laying in plain view on the rear seat.

The two people in the vehicle were removed at gunpoint and placed in patrol cars. Deputies then checked the vehicle further. Along with the Norinco MAK-90 assault rifle, they found a fully loaded 9MM pistol under the front seat, extra clips and ammunition for both weapons, and two portable two-way radios.

The arrest took place near a nightclub that was about to close for the evening. Normally on Monday mornings between 1:20 AM and 2:00 AM several hundred people leaving the club are known to congregate in the area. The plan of the two arrested individuals was unknown, but deputies are confident a possible violent incident may have been prevented. Both suspects were booked into the Placer County Jail on numerous weapons charges.
